Creating Living Memories

Your Legacy Gift will Make a Difference

Thank you for considering a Legacy Gift to support St. Joseph's Hospice. Although the Southwest Local Health Integration Network provides a portion of our direct care costs, St. Joseph's Hospice relies on the generosity of our community—people like you—to help raise about $1.4 million a year to cover our operating costs.

Support received through in-memoriam donations, general donations, special events, and planned gifts are vital to our ability to continue to serve our clients, residents, families and caregivers at one of the most difficult times in their lives.

Many Canadians support charitable organizations through future gifts from their estates. A Charitable Will Bequest is a way to support St. Joseph's Hospice while helping you achieve significant tax savings for your estate and increase your inheritances to your loved ones.

A Charitable Will Bequest - The Benefits to You

Convenient: You do not have to be rich to make a Will bequest; it can be made no matter how old you are and it can be for any amount you choose.

Simple: A bequest is easy to arrange. Simply ask your lawyer to include a bequest to St. Joseph's Hospice in your Will.

Flexible: Your bequest can be a specific amount, a percentage of your estate or the residue of your estate (a gift after your debts have been paid and other bequests made).

Tax Relief: A Charitable Will Bequest is an effective method to reduce estate taxes.

Peace of Mind: You can make changes in your Will at any time.

Satisfaction: Planned gifts are made for personal reasons, in addition to ensuring that St. Joseph's Hospice continues its long commitment of compassionate care to the people journeying to the end of life. Your bequest can symbolize a lasting memorial for you, your family or anyone you may wish to honour.

Please Seek Expert Advice: St. Joseph's Hospice strongly recommends professional advice to ensure that your financial goals are considered, your tax situation reviewed and your planned gift is tailored to your circumstances. Hospice recommends that you consult your lawyer regarding the specific wording of any Charitable Will Bequests.

Thank you for your future gift commitment to St. Joseph's Hospice
