

St. Joseph's Hospice London Development Officer, Mid-Level Giving

St. Joseph's Hospice London is a charitable organization that provides compassionate care and companionship to palliative and bereaved individuals and families; recognizing and embracing their unique needs.

The organization's vision is to create a community that honours people as they journey to life's end and to provide a haven where the palliative, the caregiver and the bereaved experience compassion, hope, and healing.

St. Joseph's Hospice London seeks a professional fundraiser to join its Department of Community Engagement and Development. The department's core purpose is to create a sustainable and innovative fundraising model that will attract an ever-increasing level of private support from individuals, corporations, and foundations.

- The Development Officer, Mid-Level Giving reports directly to the Director of Community Engagement and Development.
- The incumbent will develop an annual work plan and will meet or exceed revenue expectations laid out in that plan.
- Collaborating with all department team members is necessary for success.
- In addition, the incumbent will collaborate closely with all teams at St. Joseph's Hospice London to ensure strong programmatic linkage to fund development programs.
- The Development Officer will at all times positively represent St. Joseph's Hospice London in the community.

Imagine the impact that you can make with a growing organization who serves the community with compassion, respect, and dignity every single day.

Celebrating 5 years as a residential hospice, this organization has impacted the lives of hundreds in the London community. Working alongside committed colleagues who are equally passionate about their desire to sustain and grow to meet the ever-rising demands, this position will allow you to exercise the creativity that comes from your past experience.
